

A Family Confession for Parents

Our family is a blessing from the Lord. They are also blessed of the Lord. As parents we are mighty warriors and our children are like arrows in our hands. They will hit the target in their natural life and for God. The best jobs are already prepared for them and they will find and fulfill the will of God. God has already chosen their mates and they will not be led astray by evil men and women. They will not be taken by the lusts and temptations of the world. Because we train up our children in the way they should go, when they are old, they will not depart from it. It will be well with them and they will live a long time on the earth. They will honor their parents and not bring them to shame. They will grow up and call their parents blessed. Wealth and riches will be in our house to provide for our family and enough will be left over to provide an inheritance for our children and our children's children. We will guide our house with discretion and with the promises of God and the direction of the Holy Spirit. The path of our family grows brighter every day. No problem will be bigger than the Word of God or the Holy Spirit. No evil shall befall us and no plague will come near our dwelling. Sickness is an intruder in our home for we are the property of God, purchased by the blood and stripes of Jesus. I declare our house to be healed. Finally, our children are taught of the Lord and great is their peace. Peace reigns in our house in Jesus' Name!

Scriptures for Confession for the Prodigal Child

Isaiah 8:18: Behold, I and the children whom the Lord has given me are for signs and wonders in the earth.

Jeremiah 10:23: I know that the determination of the way of a man is not in himself; it is not in man (even in a strong man or in a man at his best) to direct his own steps.

Jeremiah 31:16-17: Thus says the Lord: Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears, for your work shall be rewarded, says the Lord; and your children shall return from the enemy's land. And there is hope for your future, says the Lord; your children shall come back to their own country.

Isaiah 54:13: And all your spiritual children shall be disciples (taught by the Lord and obedient to His will), and great shall be the peace and undisturbed composure of your children.

Proverbs 22:6: Train up a child in the way he should go and in keeping with his individual gift or bent, and when he is old he will not depart from it.
